

SUNDAY 4th October 2009 – part transcription complete weekend cd transmissions are available for purchase.

AKASHA transmitting through the accredited Messenger Usa

Introduction by Usa with a very interesting chat – followed by Akasha's discourse and she opens the way for Saint Germain:

Usa:

.....Thank you everyone. Take a deep breath. This time it's Akasha who's asking me to take off my shoes. (laughter).

This is the last time I will be up here this afternoon and I wish to express to my gratitude to dear Christarose, for opening the way for Akasha and Asuns' Dispensation of the Rose-Pink Ray, that continues the great teachings that our Beloved Saint Germain opened the way for, back in 1930, and so thank you Christarose (applause) and I thank all the beautiful people who are here this weekend.

Our Beloved Akasha is going to come in and finish some points that she wished to raise and bring to our attention and then she is going to host the open door for our Beloved Saint Germain to be with us this afternoon. So let's take a deep breath.

Today actually is the last day of Akasha's first great cycle of her return of the Rose-Pink Ray to the earth, today being October 4th 2009.

On October 4th 1994 we began our first transmission with Akasha and Asun, in a small city in British Columbia called Vernon and so this day actually completes our 15 years with Akasha and Asun and tomorrow is the Anniversary ascension of Asun (October 5th) and so the record will go down that our first class with Akasha and Asuns' second cycle of their Dispensation, will be in England tomorrow! (applause)

I am truly grateful that Messenger # two, Jayde Dunser has stepped forth to assist in this great Dispensation and you have met Jayde this weekend.

So with that, let us now enter into our hearts and open our hearts to all the love, remembering that our Beloved Akasha is the Rose-Pink Ray of Divine Love, Will and Grace that has come to the earth, to assist us in our own ascent, back into grace.

Deep breath.....

AKASHA : (part transcription)

Beloved of The I AM Family of Light.

If you give me a moment I wish to take up the senses of the Messengers' physical garment and to take up the mighty unfed flames glorious golden suns' presence, that has formed within his garment and to extend my love and my heart-flame through his golden suns' presence, and that I may through the secondary super-electrons within his palms, extend my love to each of you. God bless you.

I began earlier this day, to suggest that out of the Diamond Heart Conclave in Montreal in August of this year 2009, I found through the collective will of those who attended and those who tuned their attention to that weekend, that I was able to use the authority of my Rose-Pink Ray, for those who would accept this gift, to compel the open door of your feeling side of life, to receive first, ALL that is good and constructive, rather than the human habit of when things come to you through your attention, through your awareness, in the past and in the present, they come to you through the window of your mental body, your mind, where they then make the slow journey into your feeling side of life, where you can begin to realise the great blessings and gifts of everything you turn your attention to, that is good and constructive.

When life, that you turn your attention to and when you open to receive, must pass through the window of your awareness, that is your mind. It is always a longer journey into the feeling side of life, where you are given to make real all that you place your attention upon and open as a blessing into your life.

The open door to your feeling side of life, is out in front and to the left. If you imagine yourself seated in the centre of a time-piece and directly ahead of you is 12 o'clock, then I say to you, where you would imagine 10 o'clock would be, with your left arm out stretched, this would be where you imagine the 10 o'clock would be; this is the open door to your feeling side of life.

Now, no Ascended Being would be responsible in saying to you to hold your feeling side of life open, to what is in the world.

There is very little of anything good and constructive that is in the world and what I offer to you only works perfectly if you make that commitment to turn your attention, through prayer, to your Beloved I AM Presence and the Ascended Host, to continue to enfold you in that electronic shield of White Light in which nothing of an atomic nature, that is discordantly qualified, can ever again pass through the feeling, the mental and the physical.

That Tube of Light is an electronic force field and an electronic force field will never allow to pass through it, that in which the atom has registered discord.

As long as you turn your attention and love that Tube of Light and call forth that armour of Light to seal you and to hold your feeling side of life sealed, so that you are no longer taking on, through the wrong use of suggestion, that is out there in the world, so that you are no longer taking on the discord of the world or other people.

Then dear hearts I say to you, it is time for you to command that your feeling side of life, be an open door to all that is good and constructive, so that you can more quickly absorb and integrate into the feeling side of life first, all that is good and constructive and then when your attention is upon those things in the future, because when something comes to you through the feeling side first, then your feeling body becomes the home of that thing, then in the future when your attention is upon that thing, then the doorway between your feeling body and your physical body (which is at 2 o'clock) swings open and the feeling, the quality, the blessing and the power, that has registered in your feeling side of life, passes through into the solar plexus, where through the mass ganglionic nerve centre, below the tummy and the umbilical, receives that transmission of feeling and passes through your physical garment - the central nervous system- those feelings, those qualities that you begin to physically express and then makes its way up into the mental side of life, where you have begun the journey of great intellectual comprehension and insight and epiphany, which is always greater than intellectual understanding.

Again as I began this morning, the habit, because human beings have not remembered that you have an awareness in your feeling side of life, that is as useful and real as you do in the mental side of life.

Because of the closing of the heart, centuries of human habit, when you, through your senses (as you are now using your sense of hearing and you are hearing the messengers voice that I am flashing my words through), the majority of everything is passing through your mental body, where it must make the slower journey into your feeling side of life; where eventually it is absorbed, integrated and becomes a part of you.

When you hear the good news, that 'what I feel I make real', (due to the magnetic nature of your feeling side of life) can you not see, as long as it is that which is good and constructive, if it is compelled to come through your feelings first, rather than the window of your mind and then integrates into your feeling side of life and becomes home in your feeling side of life, can you not see that your attention upon those things in the future, which draws it into your physical garment and up into your awareness, is a much greater dynamic means of becoming, of transforming, of making real the magnificent gifts that we in the Ascended realms wish to offer each of you, for your greater freedom, more quickly.

Do you see it?

Do you understand the mechanics of what I am saying?

Can you understand that through human habit, so much comes through the mental realm. Can you understand that? (Yes)

And can you understand that it is your feeling side of life where your Will resides. It is through the feeling that you make real, anything that your mind conceives or anything that you have opened your feeling side of life to.

Now, key note to this, is Asuns' address several years ago, encouraging each of you to make the commitment, to no longer live from the 'outside in'. To make a covenant with yourself to live from the 'inside out', in which ultimately this will make you a power-house of all that you wish to bring into your world.

Second to this, is the means to support you living from the 'inside out', rather than the 'outside in' where you take on the menacing activities of the world. The means is to compare the vibration to reaction and response; to set aside reacting and to consciously make a choice, 'I no longer react to anything'.

For me, when things come to my attention, I consciously take a deep breath and ask myself, including my heart, "What is the right response?"

This will assist you living from the 'inside out'. As you live from the 'inside out' and become a power house of this and if daily you seal yourself in that great armour of light where no discord can any longer enter into you feeling side of life, I say to you precious hearts, you do not know what we know. You do not see what we see. You do not know that perhaps up to 35% of what is in your feeling side of life, that is discordant quality or emotion, never came originally from you. Rather, in a moment in which you were living from the 'outside in' did you unwittingly, unknowingly take on something from the world or another person.

And I say to you, when you realise these things, you will truly make the effort to use what is freely given to you, from your Presence and the Ascended Host, that is that great armour of Light and as long as you have that armour of light, you can compel your feeling side of life; by talking to your feeling side, "I command and I demand that my feeling side of life be an open door, in which everything that is good and constructive that I place my attention on, whether it be in this world or whether it be that which I am calling forth from the greater, for me everything must come first through my feeling side of life where it becomes a part of me.

Then when my attention is upon those things in the future they enter my physical reality and into my awareness." This is my command to life.

This I recognise will be a historical change - undoing millions of years of life too often coming through the mind, and then taking so long to realise and demonstrate in your personal lives. Do you see the value of this? (Yes)

Now, the gift is there to offer.

Your co-operation is, for a period of three, four, five weeks, just to keep it in your consciousness and say to yourself

"Everything good and constructive must come through the open door of my feeling side of life".

Now, to make this work as quickly as possible, if you will call upon me, for I have created in my temple... (and I have said this before, when we create something to offer all of you, we don't create two, three, four. We create hundreds of thousands, hoping that the word will spread and you will call to us for the gifts we offer).

If you imagine, as you look upon two beautiful quartz crystals that stand here. Is there someone... Richard, could you come and just lift this, I am sure it's not too heavy son. Yes just lift it so everyone can see this beautiful quartz crystal. Imagine a quartz crystal, that is approximately three feet high, depending on your height. It is a rose-quartz crystal and imagine half way down the crystal, that I have placed a Rose-Pink Flame in there.

Now I have placed a Rose-Pink Flame in there. Have you ever seen some of the new fibre-optic lighting and imagine from my Rose-Pink Flame fibre-optic Rose-Pink Rays. Yes Richard your animation is wonderful! Laughter!

Imagine my Rose-Pink Ray, very fine rays radiating out from that Rose-Pink Flame that I have placed half way down the quartz crystal. Thank you Richard.

If you will call upon me Akasha, to anchor.... hands out 10 o'clock (and maybe even stand for this so that you get a sense of it) to anchor underneath your left hand, right out there, to permanently place a rose-quartz crystal. Imagine as you extend your hand out that you can feel the top point of that rose-quartz crystal. And in that rose-quartz crystal is my Rose-Pink Flames' irresistible magnets presence.

Now what this is to do, because the habit is that things come more to your mind and that's why it takes a long time to make these blessings real and demonstrate them in your life. Does that make sense to you?

So the Rose-Pink Ray, the Rose-Pink Flame is the irresistible magnets presence. So you can tell yourself this story, "everything must come through my feeling side of life"; and if you will call to me once a day for a few weeks; I don't need to be called upon 28 times, however, perhaps you need to make the call enough to clear any doubt of the great gift that I have created for you.

The idea here is, that even though you speak this to yourself, this great change, the habit is that that which is good and constructive will still seek to enter through the window of your mind and find its entrance into your earthly self that way. If this rose quartz crystal, with my Rose-Pink Flame stands at the open door of your feeling side of life (remember that is my irresistible magnets presence) so that as the energy of any wonderful thing that you call to you and there it is moving through the window of your mental body, that magnets presence of my Rose-Pink Flame literally says, "oh no you don't", grabs that thing and pulls it right into the open door of your feeling side of life where it becomes part of your feelings.

Can you see the blessing that is being offered?

You see dear hearts, when we offer you real and tangible energy vibrations that we create in our octave, it really changes the old perceptions of the dynamics of prayer, where in the past people have prayed to an abstract version of God, and people have believed when prayers aren't answered that God has said no.

God has never said 'No' to the human race. Perhaps you would not have got into the trouble you gave got yourselves in down here if God had said no, You are a creator race.

When the answer seems to be 'no' it is you though your doubt who has said 'no' to yourself.

So this changes the dynamics of prayer. For prayer is your ability as an intelligent being to place your attention upon that which is the greater. Reach your hand up and welcome into yourself what is being offered.

Now I know I have the authority; I know in my Rose-Pink warehouse that I have created hundreds of thousands of these rose-quartz crystals, made of the finest fifth-dimensional frequency; I know they are there and I know that I am quite capable of projecting them and anchoring them into the open door of your feeling side of life.

I know that! Perhaps you might turn to the mighty Saint Germain and ask him;

"Is there any part of my being that doubts the great blessings the Ascended Host are offering or is there any part of me that doubts my ability to receive those blessings. Beloved Saint Germain and your Violet Flame, take that doubt out of me".

We in the Ascended realms are one in saying to you, that doubt is the nefarious step-child of fear and you need not have any desire to keep doubt in your beings, yes? And I thank you.

And so Beloved, I truly hope you will warm your heart, you have given me and Asun a warm reception this weekend.

We pray that you will open your heart to the presence of Dvine Will, Divine Grace and Divine Love, that can set aside all that has broken your hearts, century after century.

I call upon you to lean upon my Rose-Pink Ray and Flames.

Let me shower you each day with my Rose-Pink Rays, let me anchor around your physical garment, my Rose-Pink Flames, that will spiral to your right, to just absorb everything good and constructive.

I will not let you down. I know who I am and I will always answer your call and I thank you.

And will you not now open your heart, to the great brother that all of us in the Ascended realms choose to serve at his command.

We all love the Master Saint Germain.

Every Ascended Master is on record for some great service to life -
..... the Mighty Saint Germain is just alerting me and wishes me to move the Messengers garment to the floor, will you bear patience? Because I have discovered how to manipulate the senses of his garment much easier, than the Mighty Saint Germain, who would probably require this beloved one to escort him down. (the instrument of the messenger, Usa, is moving down from the stage to be at floor level with us).

So I thank you beloved hearts and I just bless you and thank you and will you open your hearts wide to the Great Master. He is the Violet Flame to the Earth and I thank you.

Such wonderful hearts, such wonderful futures are all of yours.

Love the power of qualification. (Applause) I thank you
