Saint Germain is the Violet Flame to the Earth:

Beloved family, I AM truly grateful to be included in this weekend to gather in the great name 'I AM' of whose grand privilege it was mine to introduce back into the consciousness of humankind, the awareness of these words. I thank you for gathering in the name of The I AM Family of Light event. I thank you Beloved Christarose.

I Saint Germain wish you to know that I am truly grateful to meet with you in these precious moments in what has always been for me the Motherland of my heart, upon which I took my last embodiment in your octave. My Mother the precious and Beloved (at least from my point of view) Elizabeth 1st.

Now before I go any further, I bear you to offer me forgiveness, for I must depart from you in this discourse for I see there is a son of mine in this audience and I must greet him, if you will allow me. (Saint Germain walks to a gentleman in the audience and holds him gently and lovingly says)

"Beloved son it is alright you seat and stay still. Beloved it is me, it is Saint Germain. My son your faith has been so long. You have known my Beloved Messengers, and I say to you my son, you will take your freedom in this embodiment. Your faith will serve you and I will see to it myself that you will take your freedom in your Ascension and be at peace dear son, be at peace. Do you accept this good news?" (Yes). Of course you do. God bless you my son. I knew you as William. Your country England knew you as William. Thank you Beloved, thank you..."

(Saint Germain returns to the stage and resumes his discourse):

What a day it is; your hearts are so open and my discourse this afternoon: "Love loves to set life free".

Love loves to set life free. In the Ascended realms we have some of our own habits that we have set into motion and something that we just can't help ourselves and that is we just love to offer our Heart Flames that have given us our Resurrection and carried us to our great freedom in the Ascension. And those Ascended heart flames just love to offer their love to anyone and everyone who will open to that Love.

And like Emmanuel the Christ, like Akasha, we all just love to offer the great Heart-Flame of our love. Eighty years are now passing since the great 'I AM' activity opened in America. And today your earth is held in the loving Bands, Rays and Fires of the Violet Flame. The age of man is over; the age of war is over and the age of Christ is upon the earth (applause). And I thank you.

The dawning of Aquarius has received the fruit of the Piscean age and I say to you 'for ten thousand years my Flame and my Violet Ray will govern your planet and with your guiding presence, with your direction, will this planet gain her freedom in the Ascension at the end of this seventh Golden age, that has only just begun.'

It is said and it is so, that in the first one hundred years of every new civilisation, it is said that those whose hearts are stirred of the great news of what comes (and those hearts who open to receive the great blessing) that those ones in the first one hundred years, become those who give guidance and influence. They are the goddesses; they are the senators that give rise to a new civilisation.

Twenty more years is given humankind to identify those who will discover my Violet Flame that I have drawn from the heart of Creation from out the White Fire essence of Life (the fiery furnace of God). Twenty years remains for those human beings to discover my Violet Flame and to live and breathe and walk and talk; to dance, to play, to live and create in the presence of the Violet Flames. It is these ones, when my great Brother clearly stated that the courageous and illumined (rather than the meek) will inherit the earth. He was speaking of those who would elect themselves to rise and receive what is being given. Those who turn to the greater and allow their hands to be open, a crystal cup and receive unto themselves that which ushers in, heralds in a Golden Age, are those who, as in each previous golden civilisation, become the untouchables, become the elect, become the courageous and the illumined, who influence the affairs of that planet within the given years of that Golden age.

We are eighty years into a ten thousand year cycle of building the greatest Civilisation this planet has ever known. Let me be perfectly clear.

Whether it is the Flame of All Christ illumination (that is the Golden Flame) or my Violet Flame of Purity, Transformation and Alchemy, or whether it be the Rose Pink Flame of Divine Love, Will and Grace, each of you will be known in the days ahead as 'The Keepers of the Flames of the Sacred Fire' and you are those that Yeshu Ben Joseph (Emmanuel the Christ), spoke of long ago.

And so I am truly grateful that your life has called you to this great gathering today. I am truly grateful that your life has called you to the Ascended Master teachings that restores into your consciousness 'Life' as it was given unto each of you in the beginning.

It is up to you and your heart and your Soul (not me) to determine what Flame and what Ray that you beloved have come to usher into the mass of the people's consciousness, the powers of nature and the forces of the elements.

I am aware, for I have addressed Akasha's dispensation several times and I am aware that all that are drawn into a great love affection for Akasha, know that they are being prepared for the greatest Soul evolution, that lifts them far beyond the Diamond Heart, the Indigo, the Violet soul and into the greatest incarnation of the Soul, the Radiant Rose Soul.

These are those ones who are preparing themselves to walk the earth the Rose-Pink Ray to life. Yet I know that in this gathering there are a few who have chosen to walk forth the Golden Flame of all Christ illumination; and there are those who have chosen in their evolution to go forth upon this earth the Violet Ray. This is a personal choice made by you hundreds of years ago and your heart knows whether you have chosen (in this new civilisation that unfolds) whether you have chosen to come to the earth the Golden Ray of Christ Illumination, the Violet Ray of Purity, Transformation and Alchemy or the Rose-Pink Ray of Divine Love, Will and Grace, that ushers in the great ascent back into the fullness of Loves presence - 'Grace' itself.

I will leave it for you to discern whether you have come to be the Golden Ray, the Violet Ray or the radiant Rose-Pink Ray to the earth. Yet I say to you, your days future will be all the proof you require that indeed centuries of preparation are behind you and the future waits for you to step forth one of these great Rays, to be of great service in the awakening of humankind and the setting aside of the discord and destruction that has been upon this planet.

I have come to mother England many more times than you realise. In the Ascended Master realms time and space is no consideration. We desire that time and space be no consideration on your part and if this became your truth, you would set aside much limitation and restriction that you impose upon yourself.

For I, Saint Germain, I can make myself feel that it is only seconds ago that I was escorted into a coach that was led by six steeds and where I was escorted from the lands of mother England and placed upon a great ship that escorted my life, as William Shakespeare, to the lands of India where I was then escorted by caravan into the great Himalaya valley where I took my Ascension. I deliberately left behind that which I knew would be controversial, that which I knew would be confusing, for I knew that I had placed the keys to Universal understanding of life, within all that I as Shakespeare recorded. I knew I had completed writing the rise and fall, the theatre of human life as existed upon this planet and I knew that I was, upon my ascension, to become the Will of the I AM Violet Flame to the Earth and therefore did I not only write in my plays the history of human life, the decision set aside long ago to be or not to be. I knew my destiny and I knew in that destiny the importance of placing in cipher code the keys to future Universal understandings. I knew my destiny was to become the Violet Flame to the Earth upon my Ascension. And today I am revealing to each of you, it is your destiny, long before your Ascension, it is your destiny in your Resurrection to be either the Rose-Pink Ray the Golden Ray or the Violet Ray that walks upon the earth in your full and glorious Resurrection.

There are terms of understanding that are present amongst metaphysical studies and spiritual movements and one of those is the understanding that a portion of humankind is being raised into a Christed consciousness out of which, when this raising is complete, the Earthly self and the higher mental body (a term I myself coined) or the Christed self (as it is equally called) blend in the days ahead. Now will you not please feel that I have revealed to you your destiny, the details of which will follow and not from me! They will come in your dreams, they will come in your passion, they will come in your meditations, they will be revealed in your experiences.

Yet I say to you, I have revealed to you as was revealed to me in my life, in which every moment of that embodiment, whether I existed as William Shakespeare, whether I existed as Francis Bacon, whether I enjoyed seven to nine years of life with my mother Elizabeth 1st, and whether I was taken in the midst of night into a place of England where I, as a young boy was given and adopted over by a family appointed by Elizabeth herself, of which she, in the hidden parts of night, would visit me once a year. I say to you all of those things are true.

And in all of those days of mystical experiences and visitations, I knew that my destiny upon my freedom in the Ascension would be the director, the guardian and the Violet Flame itself to the Earth.

And I say to you, once 2012 passes, it will be very clear as to the details, whether you have come to be the Rose Ray, the Violet or the Gold Ray, the details, the Soul purpose, the meaning, the means and the ways and the creative expression of all of that, will unfold for each of you. And yet within this enfoldment is your own Resurrection process, of which the raising of your earthly self is attuned to the descending presence of your higher mental bodies - Christed self and their blending and becoming ONE.

Now I say to you dear hearts, I have a reputation and I have a reputation amongst my Ascended sisters and brothers and that is the only reputation I care about! Yet I know I have a reputation from unascended human beings; some who have heard me, consider me a very strict Ascended Master. Well my dear hearts, I happened to be privileged to watch the work of Lord Astria, to behold the work of the great Archangel Michael in clearing your world of the frightful discarnates that have held the darkness upon this planet. I have seen beasts of abomination of human creation that Archangel Michael himself seized and removed from your world. So when it seems that we in the Ascended realms get a little extreme or a little intense upon you, you might want to remember it is us, or the Angels, or the great Archangels who have faced-down the demons (the human demons) that have been in this world and removed them so that humankind would survive.

So we have absolute patience for everything in the world and as far as I am concerned the great Cosmic Law has had too much patience with the nonsense of humankind, or rather a portion of humankind that has taken the rest of humankind down in such misery (Applause).

Yet I say to you, I have watched this weekend and I see what has been stressed as important; I see the great gifts of the presenters and I have seen what we have always said in the Ascended Master realms, 'there is no greater agency in this Universe than the Music of the Higher Spheres'.

And you have had those Beloveds who have dedicated their lives to music and I say to you. there is a Garden of Music within our celestial realms that would melt away the worst wickedness that has ever been in this world.

So you have all been in great company, you have been in the hands of Christarose's higher mental body. You have been in the loving care and embrace of The I AM Presence and your own heart flames. You have been loved by those who have taken to this stage and offered song and dance to assist you to integrate the importance of all that you have thus far heard this weekend.

Now of course, since I AM the Violet Flame to the Earth, I could keep you here for a whole year and teach you a lot about my Violet Flame and still not be done! Well I won't do that, but I am about to make my point.

Now, some of you have already fastened yourself onto the idea that the age of Christ consciousness has come and there must be those who lead the way. There must be those who harvest the Christ nature within their earthly selves ahead of time, so that they can demonstrate this Great Presence, this great restoration to the rest of humankind. So I will make myself perfectly clear now: I have never seen the earthly self resurrect and become one with the Christ self without the use of the Sacred Fire. If you do it, you will be the first and if you do, my office is open to you. You can come in, stretch yourself out, throw your feet up and say, "Saint Germain - I did it!" And I will say to you "No you did not, you are having a dream".

So, being the Violet Flame to the Earth you will bear patience with me I hope, and just say to you "It is your destiny, the Christ age has begun, it is your destiny to arrest your fall from Grace and the arresting of your fall from Grace began consciously".

Now you have heard that this great awakening has been going on for centuries of time. You have heard, to make this Divine plan (that begins in 2012) that in order for it to succeed this time, that thousands of years of preparations must be in place, that would draw unto humankind Christs, Avatars, great thinkers, wise hearts, magnificent Oracles and Buddhas onto the Earth to guide humankind out of an age of darkness.

All of this has taken place and so what now stands before each of you, is the readiness to embark with sole intention and absolute conviction to get the understanding of using the Violet Flame for the purification of the feeling, the mind and the garment, that ought to be fundamental to your being inclusive in your call to the Violet Flame.

What ought to be set into motion and paramount within each of you, is your recognition that long ago you chose to arrest your fall from Grace.

And I say to you, I wish to turn on the Divine memories of the first chamber of your heart and remind you of an event 2,700 years ago of which ten million advanced human life-streams were called together at a Great Gathering. Now don't let your minds go off and say how can ten million people meet in one place, well you did! A magnificent event took place at that time and that was the Ascension of my great sister the first Lady Nada, who stands with me today for the great responsibility we both have to cleanse America.

It was upon the Ascension of Lady Nada, 2,700 years ago that happened not far from where this gathering in Kent, is presently taking place. It is here that into this nation ten million advanced Souls were called, who made the decision to set up a series of embodiments, from 2,700 years ago to this moment.

A series of embodiments that would allow you to gain a great understanding of your life, heal yourselves, reclaim yourselves and begin the great journey of transferring all the attainment of all the ages of all your embodiments (that are stored in the great causal body of colours) back into your feeling side of life, for one purpose! And that would be, that when Resurrection day would pass and the seal of Resurrection would be opened upon this planet, that you would be in embodiment at that time to usher in the Divine moment of Gethsemane, that would raise you through your Resurrection, your ascent back into grace, out of which you would then stand forth the same as Jesus the Christ stood forth when he walked out from that tomb of Aramathea. His physical garment glistening and the luminosity of Love and Light Divine.

And for you older ones who have some silver and grey in your hair and you have a little belief system, "well how's that going to be accomplished!" must I remind you, that if aging has influenced your physical garment for a while, or if the silent judgements that you have had and criticisms that you have had upon yourself or others, has set into motion poisons that are wrecking your physical garment, you may ask how is such a thing possible that my earthly self and my Christed self could become one out of which I step forth a glorious resurrected Christ-Being on Earth?

Well, spend not too much time asking yourself how such a thing is possible, for you have not recorded into these physical garments the crime of humankind, the hatred of humankind that recorded in the physical body of Jesus the Christ in his crucifixion! None of you have the hatred and the crime and the torture of life which not only registered in Jeshu's physical body, registered a thousand times greater in his emotional side of life. None of you have that, none of you! And yet in three days with the presence of Angels and the Sacred Fire, an emotional body, that in most cases would probably have to be taken to the centre of the earth to be healed for ten thousand years the torture he took on from the humanity of this world, ALL HEALED.

Did not he only resurrect a whole and beautiful garment, he resurrected a physical body that carried the crimes of the worst assassins that have lived upon this planet and if he did it in three days with the help of a few Angels and the Love of the Sacred Fire, I say to you dear hearts, time is on your side.

If you will love my Angels, if you will love Archangel Michaels' Angels, if you will love Akasha's Angels, if you will love your Guardian Angel and if you will love the Archangel that you feel closest to, and if you, like Christ, will have an Angel of the Christ Blue Flame, an Angel of the Rose-Pink Flame, an Angel of the Violet Flame in the tomb of life that you have placed yourselves, (like Christ had in the tomb upon which those angels nurturing his wounds, nurturing and purifying the feeling side of life) I say to you dear hearts, the time of Resurrection has come (the Seal of Resurrection I opened in the year 2003), you can achieve your Resurrection according to your WILL.

There are many (and I am not speaking of you now, but to show you the silliness of the human) I have had many opportunities to help students who literally said to me "Saint Germain, I don't want my Resurrection; I want to enjoy my years here on the planet; I want to enjoy my human creation; I love the light aspects of myself and I love the shadow aspects of myself; give me another 50-60 years at it." And being who I AM (and I have a record of becoming impatient with humans) I simply responded, "Be that way then for you are an idiot!"

The Resurrection calls you not out of this world, the Resurrection calls you back into the glory of your magnificent being. It makes you perfect once again. It makes you a being of such triumphant glory and grace and beauty; it makes you a source of miracles; it makes you the difference your world is starving to receive at this time; it allows you to fulfill your heart and souls command to life.

The Resurrection will not take you out of this world. The Resurrection will bring forth the greatest happiness in your life. Those you love will never suffer again. It makes you the redeemer in the same way that Christ became the redeemer. The Sacred Fire that you have come to love becomes a powerful force of redemption that offers its Love and Mercy and Forgiveness to all life that has compromised itself in disease and lack limitation and poverty; it makes you a source of redemption.

Your Christ consciousness plays through your creativity, through the things you love about life and gives you the power to raise life up and out of its misery. There's a lot of work to be done on your planet. We in the Ascended realms watch every single opportunity (the all-seeing Eye of God is given to all of us). We watch every heart who genuinely opens and asks for help. We give help every time it is called forth but so often we watch the help that we offer be cancelled before it has an opportunity to yield a miracle in a person's life (because of the doubt and the fear that one has in themselves - that the miracle will not come, that life is too late, that there seems to be a force in ones' body and ones' life that has gained a momentum of its own!)

I say to you, if you think that you know who we as Ascended beings are, if you think that the hundreds and may I dare say thousands of unaccredited, self chosen channels of the Ascended Host, whom amongst them (who have declared to channel my Presence) whom amongst them can tell you the beauty of my home, the beauty of my city, the kinds of homes I live in, the kinds of magnificent creations that are in my world?

I say to you dear hearts, many have turned away from channelling because there is a lot of "malarkey" down here; there's a lot of nonsense; there is a lot of false prophets (and you were warned of this) and only your heart, only your heart flame knows.

You have created a situation in your new age movement that is no different than the situation in religion. Many who would have opened their hearts to receiving great Truths directly from the Ascended Masters don't want to hear another word about channelling and why is that? Because they expose themselves to fakes. Well I love exposing fakes. (Applause)

And when you get exposed to fakes dear hearts, you get all a lot of fluff. You don't get the real gifts and you don't get the power of an Ascended Being to deliver to you what was promised. And what happens is we get a bad rap upstairs. Well it's a good thing we can't have our feelings hurt and all I am saying dear hearts, there is a lot on nonsense in religions, there's a lot of nonsense in philosophies, educations, governments, etc., etc., etc.; there is even more nonsense in the new age community!

I am not here for some new age community; I am not here to go dancing in a pretty skirt around Stonehenge; I AM here on business; I AM here to offer you the Violet Flame of my heart that you may use it in your life to bring about the Resurrection of your earthly self and to magnetically, through Akasha's Love (Akasha has not told you and I am going to reveal to you today) if you think that you can magnetically draw your higher mental body down into your earthly self without the magnetics of the Rose-Pink Ray think, think, think again!!!).

Now I did not ask Akasha's permission to share this, but she is a humble servant.

Christ continues to seek to offer his Light to shine the way for you.

I continue to offer my Violet Flame so that you can transmute conditions and eventually when you are ready to set yourself free from the tomb of crucifixion that you have lived upon you will call upon the Mighty Angels of the three Great Rays, your Archangel, your Guardian Angel and you will set into motion, by your desire and by your command and by your full Will, that which is the moment of your Resurrection and this you will accomplish by your use of the Sacred Fire.

Even when the purification has completed, it is Akasha's Rose-Rink Ray that will stand between your earthly self and your higher mental body and the magnetic power of Divine Grace will make the two ONE again. So you might wish to consider becoming a greater friend of the three of us and our Rays. I thank you. (Applause)

We are here for your freedom. Now don't get me wrong, you know in the Ascended realms we have a good party too and we have (just as you have), great dance halls and you will have a ball where everyone comes dressed in costume and there is great renaissance playing yes? Well we have these kind of musical balls in the Ascended Master realms and we love to go dressed, we love dance, we love the great music of the ages. Of course we have a few perks, we have the Goddess of Music who herself draws the greatest Melodies from the Great Central Sun.

Life is not so serious, it is just that these are serious times and one ought not to kid about the Resurrection and about the help that comes.

Perhaps make fun of each other but do not make fun of us! We have waited millions of years for this opportunity to come and be your friends. We love you, we love your light, we love your passion, we love your presence in these gatherings and we love the presenters who come and offer their love. Their love comes to love you.

I say to you and I know that you yet suffer this thing called time, so I will let you suffer it and I will take leave.

I AM Saint Germain and just know that I have flashed my words and my love to each of you present; and remember that our heart flames love you; our heart flames love to love you free. Sometimes (and this is my final word) sometimes when it doesn't seem to work you have got to stand aside and let us in. It is not me; it is you yourself that decides, that maybe ultimately for you, you must surrender, before once again you become a driving force to life. Thank you. (Applause)

Usa in gratitude: "We love and bless you Beloved Saint Germain. We are so grateful for your presence with us this weekend. We are so grateful to your presence Akasha and Asun. We call upon our I AM Presence to bless the Angels and the Ascended ones for their presence with us this weekend; we are truly grateful. Deep breath everybody (applause from audience) Thank you".
