Usa offers a few words of importance prior to: AKASHA's discourse –

Part transcription:

Usa:

"Good morning everybody and thank you for your returned presence here today.

Approximately 25,200 years ago our Beloved Akasha gained her freedom in the Ascension in the mountain that stands behind the ruins of Delphi in Greece and approximately 24,990 years our Beloved Asun gained his Ascension and today is October 5th and is the anniversary of his Ascension.

Akasha has asked me to offer this announcement, as she recognises that perhaps for a decade there has been a student here, a student there, who have very quickly found Akasha's return Presence of the Rose-Pink Ray to the earth and there are many of you here in this gathering today, who have been with Akasha and Asun's dispensation for many years.

Akasha also states, that we've known for some time, that October 5th 2009 represents day one of the second phase of her Dispensation to the earth and so it seems fitting for her to ask me to announce to you, that on this first day of the second phase (the first phase was fifteen full years and Akasha and Asun's first transmission was in British Columbia – Canada on October 4th 1994) that today represents day one of an even longer phase!

Akasha desires me to announce that under the authority of her Rose-Pink Ray and in respect and recognition of those Beloved students throughout the United Kingdom, that she uses here authority this day, to decree:

"The United Kingdom Chapter of the Rose-Pink Ray has now been formed"

Thank you.

Some of you know my travels are extensive throughout Canada and the United States and we have students in South Columbia and South America and many Students in Australia and New Zealand. We also have students in France, Italy, Spain and Switzerland and now of course, our first official chapter of the Rose Pink Ray that Akasha has formed under her dispensation this day.

So this is the first day of Akasha's second phase of her Dispensation and I invite you to own that in your heart, because it makes you ambassadors.

It makes you ambassadors and way-showers of her Rose-Pink Ray; and it means that it allows her greater authority under the Cosmic Law, to just pour the Rose-Pink Rays' Loves presence to you, if you will open your heart to that presence and notice the magnificent difference that it makes in your lives.

One of the great activities, (things that I love, about Akasha and Asun's dispensation) is that they offer us many gifts.

They offer us a deeper understanding of Life. Who we are, where we came from, how we fell from Grace and the great journey back to Grace and they honour our personal path and they also honour the great importance that each of us become so sovereign.

They say for thousands of years we have followed so many promises, only to find too late in life, that we have been deceived, that what we were promised didn't come through.

And so Their desire to honour our sovereignty, remind us of our sovereignty, is very important and precious to them. They honour your personal lives. You have no idea how much our Beloved Akasha enters her temple and prays and decrees that you would open your hearts to the greater understanding of life and then begin to apply in your own personal life, the great awareness, the great tools, the spiritual understanding, for your own wonderful freedom.

DEEP BREATH and prepare for meditation.....

Akasha's discourse MONDAY 5th October 2009:

A glorious good morning to each of you. I AM Akasha, I greet you through the life-stream of the Messenger and I thank each of you for your presence with me today.

God bless you dear hearts.

There is a place that exists between your world and our world. It is a realm of Light in your upper atmosphere; it belongs to your world, yet it is high enough up in the atmosphere of your earth above Arabia where no discord can reach; we call it Shambala.

This place is held under the authority of the House of Melchizedek. It was created by the Queen of Light and the Lord Melchizedek. It is governed by their daughter, the High Priestess of Shambala and her twin flame Lord King. It is here that the great records, the Great Book of Names and all statutes and Dispensations and Divine Orders of past Golden Ages and future, are stored.

In what you understand as 7am GMT, I signed the Record of Dispensations and I signed the Order of the United Kingdom Chapter of the Rose-Pink Ray formed, this first day of my Dispensation, the second phase of which has begun.

Also I have written into the Great Ascension Records the names of ALL of you.

Of course, the names that I wrote down are your spiritual names; and these are the names that your higher mental bodies have chosen for you, for only your higher mental body, at this point of your consciousness, remembers the attainment of all your past ages and that attainment is stored in the great circle of colours, the causal body around The I AM Presence. By that attainment your own higher discerning intelligence chooses those names that perfectly match the vibration of the totality of attainment past.

In Shambala there are the 'Great Ascension Scrolls'. Religion has some memory of these things, yet has distorted the Ascension Scrolls into what they call; 'The Book of Names', that suggest, the names of those who are recorded that have a destiny in heaven or a destiny in hell.

You know that these are not places; rather they are states of consciousness, and you know that the true book of names is the record of the attainment of all your lifetimes since your embodiment twelve to fourteen millions years ago, when you came to the earth.

All of your names are written in the Great Ascension Scrolls and all of your names are recorded as being a part of the great United Kingdom Chapter of the Rose-Pink Ray to the earth.

Fifteen years have passed and within North America today, there are twenty-eight chapters of the Rose-Pink Ray to the earth, as well as one that includes Australia and New Zealand.

I desire for each of you to open your hearts to the greater immensity and meaning of this, even though you may not intellectually have the understanding, that once there are those in numbers who gather and the quality of the heart opening and the expenditure of personal will is sufficient, to initiate your great awakening under one of the great Rays that are upon the earth at this time. This is duly noted, it is recorded and the Cosmic Law states, that if in some way you can discover these things, become aware of them, accept them, hold them within your consciousness, it means the most extraordinary assistance can come to each of you.

In the Ascended realms we celebrate and for us the greatest is the memory of when we gained our freedom in the Ascension, fulfilling a number of embodiments that brought forth the great realisation and the great Resurrection of our true nature, that culminated in a moment, and raised us to our freedom.

The memory of this, the celebration of this is something that is the most important activity to every Ascended Being. In the Cosmos there are Ascended Beings far greater in their evolution than mine. Great Cosmic Beings who have been ascended for hundreds of millions of years and even they always celebrate the anniversary day of their Ascension.

We do this not only to celebrate our victory in the Ascension, but to celebrate all the days that we have lived in a dimensional reality of a planet. All the days that once woven together, have given us a great experience in a physical reality, that then prepares us to go forth as Masters in a physical Universe. And I mention that too, because I say to you, do not rush to your Ascension!

It is inevitable, for it is in all the days that you can enjoy life on earth. It is in all the days that you come to discover how easy it is to master, to manipulate in a constructive life, all physical matter, including the physical matter of your own physical garments. So we celebrate not only that we gained our freedom and our victory, we celebrate all the days that we lived in physical matter on some physical planet and all the opportunities of personal experience that culminated and our ability to direct our intelligence and our love, to affect, to impact, to transform, transmute and change any physical matter in any ways we so desire.

When we speak of Ascension we always wish to place within your consciousness, that although this is perhaps the greatest culminating activity of life on earth, yet this moment is not reached, until you have lived well upon the earth and have mastered yourselves and your lives and made a great contribution, a meaningful difference to the planet, that had become your home.

So although you hear talk of these things, of a great spiritual hierarchy and all that is offered from heavens above, please, do not interpret this wrong, for your lives on earth, are the most important activity right now to each of you and your ability to transform all that offends life, in your own personal experience and begin to demonstrate the greater powers of life, with a dazzling mind and a fulfilling heart and so this is your destiny.

It is the most unusual thing for an Ascended Being to leave their Ascension celebration, as Asun has to be here with you. It is even more unusual to have both twin flames leave the Ascension celebration and I say to you that Asun is very blessed because he has the Great Goddess Rose stepping in for both of us at the Ascension celebration. that we may be here with all of you and this is also noted in the great Records of Life.

You know precious hearts, those of you who live in the United Kingdom, you know the history of Europe, you know the dark forces that have rolled across the lands of Europe and even longer ago across Africa and Asia, that so imprisoned the people from their great freedom and we feel it is just so perfect, to be with you this first day of our next great phase of Life.

A phrase that I would like to introduce to you all and a phrase that I and Asun have been using more often in the last four to five weeks is,

'That which is my own'.

Could you record that in your consciousness! 'That which is my own'.

That which is your own is your right to life. It is your right to dip into the eternal wellspring of life and draw forth unto yourself, an infinite supply of Gods' great energy. And once having done this and established this great current, where infinite supply of Gods energy flows into your life, by restoring unto yourself 'that which is my own' then becomes a storehouse of energy that builds in your physical garments and builds in the feeling side of life, around your garments and builds in the great electronic fields outside of the feeling side of life, a storehouse of such infinite energy.

Yet no matter how great, no matter how often, that you yourself have dipped into the eternal well-spring of life and drawn Gods' great infinite energy, that which is your own (your right to life unto yourself).

Yet what remains your responsibility, is to rise and use your intelligence, for God never decides for you. The infinite 'I AM Presence' holds the eternal well-spring of life open, to all their individualisations, to draw unto yourselves, all the energy you are to ever require or desire, wherever you live in this Universe. Yet what that energy becomes is up to you!

This requires the sound use of your mind and heart connection. This requires the ability for you to set aside, the nightmares and that which has made you so tired in being in this world so many times, moving through so many difficulties and challenges. It is so important to allow yourself to impress this great Truth upon your consciousness, for it denies the state of human consciousness that presently exists.

"It is my right to turn within and upwards and draw to me that which is my own. My own is my birthright to life. My own is my ability to draw forth from the eternal wellspring of life an infinite storehouse of Gods' great energy. This gives me greater understanding, greater enthusiasm and greater purpose for meditation, for prayer, for setting aside the busy demands of the world. This gives me a greater understanding of the great requirement to set aside the demands of the world and in the privacy of my own home, turn within and upwards.

A heart filled with gratitude. A mind that acknowledges the infinite nature of life and the eternal well-spring of life that has always been there, waiting for me to consciously use my free will, acknowledge this eternal well-spring of life, accept its existence and call forth a great ocean of Gods' great energy, into my life and my world, out of which I create life on earth.

My Beloved I AM Presence, the Angels, the Ascended ones, the infinite I AM from the Great Central Sun. None choose for me the design of that energy, in terms of what it becomes in my life. This I must decide for myself"*

If you hear well what I am suggesting to you, then you may be willing to erase some half-truths that have been a part of metaphysics, where you may in the past have found yourself saying,

"Well, I am not sure, I will just let God direct me. I'll just turn it over to the Universe and see what happens".

Well as Asun would say, that attitude gets you one response. The Universe and God folds their arms and says, "Oh no you don't, you don't pass the buck (Laughter)".

You are given an infinite well-spring of life, 'that which is my own' and you must use your free will, rise up and acknowledge it and through the power of intention, the power of acknowledgement, the power of prayer, the power of telepathic communion, to call upon your Beloved I AM Presence.

If you see the life-stream from the heart of your I AM Presence and the earthly self as an extension cord and the currency is flowing, then it is for you to equally know, that from the crown point of your I AM Presence is an extension cord or life-stream, that goes directly back to the heart of Creation. So when you re-connect with your Presence, "as Asun would say it, I suppose you are plugged back in!"

Well your I AM Presence has never unplugged from the Great Central Sun where we ALL originally came from.

In the Great Central Sun where we all lived in beautiful light, spiritual garments, we all had the equal opportunity, to turn to the well each day and draw forth all the energy we could ever desire and require.

Having left the Great Central Sun, your I AM Presence is your continuous guarantee that you can continue to dip in to the eternal well-spring of life and draw all the energy you require, for healthy minds, healthy physical garments, healthy feeling side of life and all the energy you might require, to live as long as you might choose to on this earth and to build structures of tremendous abundance and prosperity. There is no limitation.

Would you like to just breathe into that.

Might I invite you, through your own private moments, through prayer, through invocation, to re-align with 'that which is my own'. from the privacy of your own home:

CALL

"I consciously re-align to 'that which is my own'. Through my own Beloved Presence who abides within me and above me, I turn back to the Great Central Sun, my eternal wellspring of life and I call forth 'that which is my own', my eternal wellspring of Gods' great energy into my being and my world; out of which I can create all that I desire and I am grateful"

There are many metaphysical truths and half-truths that exist upon the world at this time.

Some of those include that you can have everything you want.

That is a truth, only if that truth has within it the foundational comprehension, that you can have everything you desire, because you can create everything you desire, once you have realigned and restored your connection to your I AM Presence and remind yourself, your I AM Presence is your whole and true Divine Nature and is a perfect replication of the infinite I AM Presence an individualisation of the infinite I AM Presence. ONE and the same.

When Jesus was with you on the earth, he stated in the way that people could understand at that time:

"I and my Father are one. He that seeth me, seeth the Father. I and my Mighty I AM Presence are one, there are not two"

The sleep, the lethargy of human belief systems, has created a fundamental mental structure (a matrix) that supports duality and supports the idea that there is a presence that can oppose the Presence 'I AM'.

This is a dream, yet you are Creator Beings. As Creator Beings you have the power and authority to make a dream as real and as tangible as anything you can touch. Equally you have the power to undo that dream through a recognition, a re-alignment, a re-affirmation, a reprogramming of your consciousness:

There is but ONE Presence, ONE power, ONE intelligence and it is The I AM that I AM.

Everything else is an illusion. Does it make it not real? No, in this sub-reality it makes it real, but it is yet an illusion.

What does this mean?

It means it is temporal. It means that what exists in this world is not of an infinite incorporeal nature.

It does not have a Cosmic Law to sustain it; it only has human law to sustain it.

The rising of your earth sun every day is a Cosmic Law. Your planets, their orbit, the harmony of your planets with your suns' presence, the existence of great seasons upon planets, all Great Cosmic Laws set into motion by higher intelligence. No being can undo those laws except the intelligence that first originated them into action.

The world that is "of illusion" is a world of duality, good and bad. It can create good health in one moment and difficult health in another. Such is the moving sands of human creation, upon which in the foundation of human consciousness, there is enough ideas accepted, of the limiting nature of human life on earth, that in any unsuspecting moment, a condition, an appearance can be upon you, upon which you then, with the power of your attention, try to heal that appearance, try to treat that appearance, try to correct that appearance.

In bringing this to your attention today, it is because you are stronger than you realise.

Your awakening, your restoration, has been going on for centuries of time. I can say to you, although it may not be pleasant for you to hear it, in this embodiment as important as it is, with embodiments behind you that you have prepared for this lifetime, as unpleasant as it is to hear, the truth of hearing it is so important because it will move you into a new place of ease and relaxation, in approaching the appearances or conditions of your life that limit you.

The truth is this.

You cannot experience anything that is offensive to life, and my term 'offensive to life' is a limitation, a limitation that is affecting you mentally, emotionally, physically or structurally in the world and so when these things come to you, here is the truth:

You have set this into motion yourself. It is what you have chosen, as your initiation to one day, one place, some time, somewhere, let go of everything in your hands, and try not to use anything that is out there in the world and apply the spiritual principles that you have come to know and give yourselves a spiritual treatment, that will be the great undoing of any appearance.

Whether you call it an initiation, I simply would like each of you to know, that you have 'self-chosen' those limitations, as those opportunities in which each of you would self-prove the Presence I AM and the power of your Presence, when you choose not to heal a thing, not to correct a thing; when you choose to let the shadow disappear by turning on your life strong enough once again.

We've often used (as crude as the example can be) if you compare darkness to limitation, challenges and appearances. Before you came into this room this morning the lights, the artificial light, was turned off. Before you opened the doors, this room was held in darkness. Someone entered in before you, someone turned on the artificial light and the darkness disappeared.

If the darkness represents an appearance, a challenge, a difficulty in a relationship, something going on that is affecting your health, affecting your supply, affecting your finances, affecting your opportunities. If we see these things as shadows of some former belief, some former emotion, rooted in the illusory belief in two powers and understanding that is a shadow of darkness, in much the way that you can infuse artificial light into this room.

Now the light did not battle the darkness; the artificial light did not come down with swords and fight the darkness. Someone simply turned the artificial light on and darkness disappeared.

How easy can it be, to turn on the Light, turn on the Love, turn on the Life in the recognition that that Light, that Love, that Life is omnipotent. It is one power that has no opposites. It is one Presence that loves to bloom its sweet existence as all the beauty and perfection any intelligent being can create. It is ONE great wisdom, infinite in nature, that requires no belief structure to be present.

Omnipotence, I claim the omnipotent, the omnipresent, the omniscient nature of the I AM Presence that I AM.

In this claim shall I seek to heal or not? If I seek to heal a condition what will be the approach of my healing?

Will I seek to go to a healer, in the same way as Usa (the Messenger) travelled to Hawaii many, many years ago, to sit with his teacher Joel Goldsmith.

Usa went for a healing with Joel and was asked to sit down and Joel acknowledged his presence; simply said hello and closed his eyes. Usa followed and closed his eyes and they sat in stillness for one minute.

Joel, having been his teacher for many years, already knew to be open and receptive to whatever higher truth that he was holding and knowing, so that that truth could unfold as his reality; remembering there is but ONE presence individualised seven billion times. Here was a Presence that knew of itself, this Presence was fully awakened. Within one minute Joel opened his eyes tapped the fingers of the Messengers hand and said, "It is done. God speed in your journey".

The Messenger returned home to Vancouver and medical tests were done, and proved the pancreas was healed; the scars on the lungs removed and never seen in x-ray again. There was a miracle.

Now what kind of a healing was this? Did Joel use something or did Joel just move into that continuous knowing, a knowing that no human condition could move him out of. He knew there was no order to miracles. There was no such thing as a small miracle, a big miracle; and he understood that a miracle is an intelligence that is governing energy and the intelligence of Joel through his own study, his own demonstration of the 'Presence', his own unyielding conviction 'there is but ONE Presence, one power, one intelligence, in all its creative expression; and therefore anything that reports to the senses, opposites or some other seeming presence, must not be real, it must be an illusion.

For more than 25 years (and Joel did not have the Ascended Master teachings), yet he had a great love of Gautama the Buddha. He had a great love of the teachings of the Tao, he had a great love of the teachings of Christ.

He was one of the few Americans to correctly understand what Christ was saying. He applied and applied and applied and refused to allow what reported to him through the senses, to bring him to a situation where fear or doubt could possibly move in and close the door to some great realisation.

Is it possible that healing is a deep realisation.

A realisation that is so great that ultimately it is an epiphany; an epiphany that is continuous and gains momentum every day, in which everyday is seen as an opportunity to prove there is but ONE Presence, ONE power, ONE intelligence, ONE state of beauty and perfection in limitless creative expression, 'I AM'.

In my great awakening I rise upon my 'Lotus Throne of Light' in my great discovery and awareness that I, me, everyone, the intelligence that lives within this earthly self, I AM this great I AM that is the ONE presence, the ONE power, the ONE intelligence.

If there is a different outcome, that follows the steadfast and continuous seeking to demonstrate this great Truth.

What is the nature of this kind of healing? Is it possible that as you go back in years of your metaphysical study and you remember some of the early studies of self realisation. Is it possible that a healing could be a deep realisation that has moved the one Presence, the one power, the one intelligence, in the activity of your life?

Joel was a master teacher; he was a master healer, as close in the 1900's that you could get to being a fully resurrected and ascended being. And he just loved to stay in that place, 'do not fool me', 'do not distract me'. He did not say to the Messenger, "What is your appearance?" in fact he found it very distracting if a student would come to him and say, "I have an illness", or "I have unemployment", or "I have a problem with a relationship, that I am coming for a healing". Joel did not even want to know your name, for as far as he was concerned, you were the incarnation of The I AM Presence on earth. How much of that incarnation, how much of that expression of the I AM that you had yet become, he was not interested. He simply held to the one truth, there is ONE great presence; its name is I AM and he knew that this was the truth of every human being, whether they themselves knew that truth.

So, is it possible that continuity, momentum, staying with his higher Truth, is it possible that as the deep realisation of this great truth, that allowed a demonstration of this truth and a correction, in which in one moment there was a shadow. Makes no difference if that shadow is an illness, is unemployment or if it is a broken heart, a lack of prosperity, it makes no difference what the appearance is.

Do you sense what I am trying to say to you?

It is to encourage each of you.

You are gaining now, you are gaining a much greater understanding of the 'I AM Presence' that is your true nature.

Your understanding that your true nature is such a splendour of life that the physical cannot contain the great splendour of your being, that life on earth gives you an opportunity to grow your presence, to grow your light, to grow your love within your earthly self.

The problem and the challenge is that the hour is so late, and because the hour is so late, that your Presence and all of us offer you the Sacred Fire, so that the Sacred Fire can be the powerful Law of transmutation in your life.

So that as each of you move into deep aha's, deep insights, then the compelling presence of the Sacred Fire which is the HEART of The I AM Presence, can move quickly in there and be that power of transmutation, that power of correction, that allows the undoing of an illusion; an illusion that in your world can be so crippling that if you yield to it, can take you physical life.

Why?

Because you are Creator Beings.

Your disconnect from The I AM Presence long ago, did not disconnect you from the creator nature that has always been yours and century after century has that nature always been present, except that through fear, (that has been fostered into your consciousness) what you have found yourself being a part of a collective creation on the earth, is a creation of limitation.

And so, as your great knowledge of the Tree of Life, the I AM Presence, as your great knowledge continues, seek to demonstrate The I AM Presence in your life.

You may only yet have a partial knowledge of the I AM Presence, but your heart has ALL of it.

That is why throughout this weekend and all through the future that takes you to 2013, is to rise and use your mind, yet through your hearts and to seek council from the great heart-flame and when you seem to find yourself in a spot of trouble, when you find yourself with something that ails your physical body or challenges you in your outer life; I say to you dear hearts, until you can consciously, deliberately and purposefully, demonstrate the power of your Presence, I urge you to keep acknowledging, keep loving, keep accepting this great spiritual nature within you.

Keep calling that spiritual nature to expand because the most natural activity of life is to expand - expansion. Keep this great activity up and then, if there be some things that you are really challenged with, whether there is some activity out there in the world, or finding perfect employment, or unleashing your creative talent, or correcting some condition in your physical body, if you would give the mighty unfed flames in you and the great Love flame in your heart, give all authority to be the regulating, the governing and the correcting presence of every activity of which you wish to direct its presence to.

Now, you have not yet opened yourself to the amazing ease that you can correct a condition in your physical garment.

I would say in these days whether you have perfect health, well you could still turn to those mighty flames to beautify your physical garment, to rebuild the structure of your physical garment; to rebuild your spine, to throw off the aging process that has collected in your cells, so there are lots of reasons to give those unfed flames (Golden Suns' presence) and the great Love flame in your heart all authority.

Let's say it this way (would you like to do it with me and repeat after me?)

"As I acknowledge the threefold flames within and their 'Golden Suns Presence' and the great Love-flame in my heart, I give those great God-flames all authority to be the regulating, the governing and the correcting presence of every activity of my mind, my physical garment, its' perfect health, energy and vitality and my feeling side of life. I love and bless those great God-flames that abide within me, and I am so grateful and blessed".

If you align with the Law of continuity, the Law of momentum, the Law of intention, then these three Great Laws, if you use them to affirm this great invocation, *because here you have a spiritual formula: acknowledge, accept and invoke. You are acknowledging, you are accepting this spiritual centre and you are invoking all its powers, because it is the I AM Presence that has thus far grown within each of you.

Wait till your great head-flames light up!

(audience - Laughter)

Indeed!

So dear hearts, if you give it your attention, if you make sure that continuity and momentum is there, and three, four, five times, (however many times a day) you just stop and get those hands over your spiritual centre and issue that mighty Decree.

Remember, you don't always have to get the words right, ask yourself,

"What's the intention?"

Well I have this great spiritual centre; the idea is to let it control everything in my physical body, my mind, my feelings, while I myself in consciousness, make the great transformation in my thoughts, my feelings, my attitudes. This gives me a little bit more time to demonstrate the one Presence in my consciousness because once I demonstrate something in my consciousness it will unfold in my physical reality.

So while I do this over this next year and come to The I AM Family of Light® gathering next year - we will blow the roof off, demonstrating The I AM Presence

(Applause).

Meanwhile you do not have to wait. Is life beating your heart? Yes!

Life cannot beat your heart unless there is a 'source' of life. That source is what we call the 'super Heart Electron'.

That super Heart Electron is in the fifth chamber of your heart. It is the source of the great Love-flame and it is that Flame that has produced the three Flames growing in the centre of the chest cavity.

So this is your great spiritual centre and if you would say:

"Until I beautifully demonstrate The I AM Presence in my life, yet I don't have to wait to see its manifestation, I can turn to the very life that beats my heart and now that I know, now that I am illumined that the life exists as the great unfed flames from the heart of Creation, I can turn acknowledge, accept and invite. I invite these great God-Flames within me, to now expand and be the governing, the correcting presence within my mind, my body, my feelings, that produces every great God correction in my health; a sound mind, an open heart and a physical body with Gods' great health, vitality, energy and mobility. I turn to these Great God-flames within me and I say to those flames: I give you all power. I recognise how important it is that I use my free will.

I have not fully understood how to use my free will. I thought free will was getting my own way (laughter from audience).

I didn't realise that 'free will' included directing life, directing life. Not someone else's life, but directing your own great God life. My goodness, I suppose there is a higher meaning to there being a Great Divine Director in this solar system. Maybe the reflection is that I am to be the great divine director of my own spiritual nature and how it is to unfold in my life. Yes!*

And so it is, as the director of the great God nature 'I AM', I turn, (I do not have to wait until I demonstrate the one presence in my life) I turn to those Flames that already abide within me. They are a source of perfection, they are the great Christ-flames (the immortal flames of life) and I give those Flames in me all authority to rise and be the great governing and correcting and controlling nature of Gods perfect health in my body. A sound mind and a fully open heart, that I may go forth in all that I have come to be and accomplish in this world; and to live in such a state of happiness and harmony."

You see we love to bring this to your attention. We know that you cannot attend your local Universities to get this knowledge. We know that your religions once had this knowledge but they covered it over; and why did they cover it over?

Because, if you discovered and studied this knowledge and you applied it, you would be freedom beings walking on the earth, and religions and all sorts of organisations, *they talk a good talk, but they really don't want your freedom!

What they do desire is to continue to control the mass of the people and now you have the proof, you have all the proof, you have the proof now, you know! They have all been caught in their act, whether they are governments or religions, you know you cannot be deceived again.

And so it's with great joy that we come to you and we bring you this great knowledge so that you can then apply it in your life; do so with enough continuity, enough momentum so that within a month, two months you start seeing the results.

The emergency words of the Great Ascended Masters, in our octave the words are the LIFE OF GOD NEVER FAILS.

There have been so many emergencies in your octave and the great Archangel Michael has stepped in to so many of them. There is a great Ascended Master group called K17 and that group is the Ascended Master espionage, just like you have your own espionage. So we have our group and they are called K17 and they watch. They watch your nuclear weapons, they watch and they walk through walls and when there is planned hidden meetings, in which governments or all your world trade organisation meetings, anything of great importance now, there is always one member of K17 standing invisible and listening.

When they have to issue something to avoid a threatening danger, the word they use with great momentum, which calls the Elohims, the Archangels, the Goddesses, the Ascended Masters and the great Kumara's into action is:

"The Light of God never fails".

You see, the Ascended Master knows, that where there is something that is being hidden from you, this edict will bring a focus of Light into that thing which will then expose it to the people, so the people can then rise up!

Applause

And so dear hearts, the Love of God, the Light of God and the Life of God never fails.

I wished to nurture you with some things this morning. I hope that with my presence with you, that the illumination of bringing these things to your attention, has added to your Ascended Master knowledge.

Dear hearts your spiritual library is not complete without the great teachings that come from The I AM activity, they are known as Saint Germain books, they are known as the 'Green Books'. They are The I AM discourses, and it doesn't mean you have to get the whole set of 20 books, but especially the first three books will give you SO much knowledge.

Remember dear hearts under the great Law of one Presence, one power and one intelligence, you can now understand Jesus' words,

"I AM always with you and I will never leave you" and under that Great Cosmic Law, I echo his words and I, Akasha promise each of you;

"I will never fail you - if you call upon me".

Please remember dear hearts you cannot turn your attention to an Ascended Being and call their Presence to you and follow that with doubt.

Even asking yourself, "will the Ascended Master come", is a suggestion that doubt exists.

If you call for help, move into the knowing,

'The Light of God never fails', the help always comes and be at peace.

I Akasha will always answer your call, and since I AM the Rose-Pink Rays' Magnets Presence to the earth, when you call me and say:

"Akasha this is the condition that I am facing" then I will use the magnets presence of my Rose-Pink Ray to draw to you, that which is the answer and the fulfilment of what you require, to be free of that thing that is limiting you.

And I thank you and may the blessings of your own great life be a great raising activity to your Beloved Nation and I thank you.....
